

La Dilecta - Touraine Sauvignon 2019

AOP Touraine, Vallée de la Loire et Centre, France

Our journey is coming to an end. Let's discover a last wine on the borders of Touraine, at Willy Allion's, a young passionate winegrower in the commune of Saint Romain sur Cher. La Dilecta, named after Honoré de Balzac's first love, Mme de Berny, is an exceptional wine that magnifies the expression of Sauvignon Blanc grown to a very high level of maturity. This wine, which exudes candied fruit, combines aromatic power and elegance.

PRESENTATION

A word from the winemaker - Willy Allion:

The two parcels of old vines used to make Dilecta are located on the Cher hillsides on a clay-limestone terroir and are selected for their superb ripening ability. I harvest the grapes once the aromatic peak is reached in order to obtain a wine with a unique taste of ripe fruit and a beautiful explosiveness in the mouth.
